

TILSYNSRÅDET FOR KRIMINALOMSORGEN

THE SUPERVISORY
BOARD FOR THE CORRECTIONAL SERVICE

The Supervisory Board is responsible for ensuring that the Norwegian Correctional Service complies with applicable rules and human rights. The Supervisory Board is also responsible for monitoring to ensure that the welfare of prison inmates is safeguarded.

Tell us how you are doing

You can contact the Supervisory Board regarding how you are being treated in prison or anywhere else in the Correctional Service's institutions. You can contact us by phone or e-mail or by writing a letter. Relatives are also free to contact us.

Contacting us is free

It is free to call the Supervisory Board. If you ask to call the Supervisory Board, the Correctional Service must treat it as a matter of priority. Any conversations you have over the telephone will not be included in your call time. If you wish to write to the Supervisory Board, the Correctional Service will provide you with writing materials, an envelope and a stamp.

We are subject to a duty of secrecy

The Supervisory Board has a duty of secrecy. Calls with the Supervisory Board will not be monitored, and written communication will not be read by the Correctional Service.
